

DO YOU REALLY WANT TO BUY ANYTHING FROM 'LEATHER DADDY69'?

If you're in the market to buy jewelry, a bike or flatware – anything, really – the ideal basis for your purchase is not a fuzzy photo and a description from a stranger on the Web who lives several time zones away. Better to search The Washington Post Classifieds. That way, you can check out your purchase in person. Make sure it's for real. And leave leatherdaddy69 to his own devices.
